COMPLAINT FORM

It is the policy of the Kent Police Department to properly investigate all citizen complaints which allege personnel misconduct or areas of improvement with police services. We recognize the importance of properly investigating all citizen complaints for the protection of the public, for the reputation of police members, and to promote public confidence in the Kent Police Department. The preferred method of filing a personnel complaint is directly with a supervisor in person or by calling 330-673-7732.
